Poetry.

OCTOBER.

Upon the brown and far off hills
The haze lies soft and blue,
Where nuts are dropping thick and fast,
Where Summer wild flowers grew.

The Maple's gold and crimson leaves
Like blood-stained banners gleam,—
And purple aster's ope their bloom
Beside each forest stream.

The woods like some grand temple stands
Beneath the glowing skies,
While down the long dim aisles, the haze
Like slumb'ring incense lies.

No organ's deep, majestic notes
Come peeling on the air—
No choral strain triumphant flies
Along those arches fair—

No voice is heard—no sound, save but
The brooklet's rip'ling flow,
Or whistling quail in covert thick,
Where scarlet berries grow.

Perchance some frightened rabbit's tread,
May wake an echo there,
Or drowsy hum of honey bee
Fall on the dreamy air.

The sunflower and the golden rod
Their gaudy hues unfold,
And seem as if some Midas touch
Had changed them into gold.

The grapes in purple clusters hang
Upon the clinging vine,
And in the orchard, 'mid the leaves,
The ruby apples shine.

But through the forests, o'er the hill
A voice comes whispering low—
It murmurs of the wintry winds
And of the falling snow.

The crimsoned leaves to earth must fall,
And breezes o'er them sigh—
Oh! sad it seems that aught so fair
Should ever fade or die.

We read on every falling leaf
This lesson most sublime,
That Resurrection's holy power
Shall triumph over time.

For though the summer flowers may fade,
The Spring with sun and rain
Shall call them from the vale
To bud and bloom again.

ARRIVAL OF A LIVE GORILLA FROM AFRICA.

The New York Post of September 25th, says: For the first time there is a live gorilla in New York—a gorilla like those of which Du Chaillu has told us so many wonderful stories in "Equatorial Africa," and "Ashango Land."

At a late hour, yesterday afternoon, there was an extraordinary excitement in the neighborhood of Barnum's Museum. The gorilla had arrived, and his roars attracted a crowd of spectators.

The animal was caught in the interior of Africa, and was put safely on board the sailing ship Harding, and conveyed to this port. The box in which it was caged during the voyage was made of teak wood plank—the toughest material that could be found in Africa. A huge cart-chain, fastened to the neck of the gorilla, passed through this box and was nailed fast to the outside.

From the jarring the gorilla received yesterday during its transportation from the ship to the Museum, it became exasperated, and growled furiously during the trip. After the box had been taken into the Museum, Mr. Charles Brothwell, the Museum carpenter, loosened the chain from the outside of the box, and, by direction of Professor Davison, attached to it a rope, by which the animal was to be led from the box to the cage, by running the rope through the bottom of the cage and then fastening the chain to a beam of the building beneath the cage.

The rope was attached, when the gorilla began pulling in his chain. Professor Davison and Mr. Brothwell both grasped the chain, and several men behind grasped the rope, but their united efforts were unequal to the task. The animal, with apparent ease, pulled into his box both chain and rope, and untying the rope from the chain, dropped it from a hole in the cage.

Mr. Brothwell then got the largest cage-scraper in the building—a huge wrought-iron bar, an inch and three-quarters thick, to which is attached a small spade—for the purpose of bringing out the end of the chain. This scraper had been used successfully in several contests with the lions of the establishment, which had vainly tried to make an impression upon it with their jaws.

Mr. Brothwell and Professor Davison each took a scraper, and from opposite ends of the cage endeavored to foil the gorilla, and grasp the end of the chain. Finally the gorilla seized the bar which Mr. Brothwell held. Another man, who is noted for his muscular strength, came to the rescue, but the animal proved their superior, and bent the heavy piece of iron double, so that the ends touched.

During this effort, however the chain was secured and the box put to the cage, the animal entrapped, and his chain secured to the beams underneath.

During all this excitement, the gorilla growled furiously, the sound resembling the excited roar of a lion.

All the beasts in the building became excited, and the place resounded with their cries. Women fainted and children cried, but the crowd would not leave the room until the manager ordered them to be put out by force. A large barricade was erected and the doorway blocked up.

The gorilla is now safely in the lion's cage and caged down. An immense chain, with a resistless force of six thousand pounds, is attached to the animal.

For five years past, Mr. Barnum has been endeavoring to secure an animal of this species, and ordered his agent in Africa, to secure one without regard to cost.

Mr. B. P. Clayton, Mr. Barnum's agent, a few months since wrote that he could secure one for $8,000, but that the British Government were making every exertion to secure it for the Zoological Garden in London. Mr. Barnum sent word that he must have this one, if it cost a much greater. Accordingly, the gorilla was brought to America, and is now safe at the Museum.

When standing upright it is about five and a half feet in hight, and is about the color of an elephant. Its face has more the appearance of a human being than of a monkey, with an eye exactly like that of a human being. Its hand is as delicate as that of a woman's, and it would not seem possible that there is in it such muscular power.

This morning it exhibited an intense hatred of Mr. Brothwell, who was yesterday instrumental in its capture.

Professor Davison feeds the animal upon vegetables, but allows nothing of acid to be placed in the cage. If the gorilla becomes irritable it is soon quieted by placing a few cloves or nutmegs in its cage.

MISS VINNIE REAM.

A correspondent of the Anti-Slavery Standard writes from Washington: In one of the chambers of the Capitol, appropriated to her by Congress since her commission to execute the statute of the late President Lincoln, the almost child sculptor has her studio. Light and airy, tastefully decorated with flowers and evidences of her creative skill, it is the fitting abode of art. We found Miss Ream busily employed upon a group in clay, to be entitled "America," which will fitly symbol our country when a true reconstruction is perfected. Under her skillful manipulations, clayey outline daily more nearly approaches the form of the martyr President; and she hopes to have the complete moded wrought in time to enable her to sail for Italy, at the latest, within three months. Orders flow in upon her, and busts and statuettes, crowding the niches of her studio, speak eloquntly of her employment. Familiar faces look upon you from plaster; names well known spring to your lips as you gaze alternately upon Senators, Generals and dignitaries, evoked from the past, or reproduced with marvelous fidelity from the present. The "Great Commoner," Stevens; the sad-eyed Lincoln; the astute Reverdy Johnson, are among those the eye recognizes as most happily depicted, but in many others are revealed correct delineations.

He who, from fancies connecting masculinity wich art, has formed impressions of size or coarseness of mould, would be astonished to see, in the gifted artist, so detite a creature, apparantly more fitted for the drawing room than such a walk of life. Born in the free West; surrounded the greater part of her life by adverse circumstances, Miss Ream was early taught habits of self reliance, and in taking up her beautiful art, to which she was irresistibly attracted, she did it without any of the tortuitous aids that rarely accompany struggling genius. Yet in the continuous effort, resulting in the removal of those obstacles one by one from her path, all that is sweet and womanly has been preserved. There is an atmosphere of purity about her. Her nature is artistic. Never was woman more truly womanly, yet she is as wedded to her art as though all of sweetness, refinement, and tenderness of nature were not hers, and looking from her to the busts and figures on which she has breathed her artist inspiration, one has a broader scope, a grander vision of women, when a girl, almost wholly self-instructed, could have thus conceived and wrought. Easy in manners, possessing a fund of intelligence scarcely to be expected, joined to rare conversational abilities, Miss Ream causes the visitor at once to feel at home in her studio and take an interest in her studies even though not a commissioner in art.

Unless her visitor be some one with whom ceremony is expected, she does not cease from work, but, industrious as the bee gathering sweets, converses as she labors. Her dress, as worn daily, is plainness itself. That of no cottage maiden could be simpler. Yet, as she flitted from one case or model to another, touching the cold clay with her delicate fingers gently as though it were something animate, I thought of Hilda, that glorious creation of Hawthorne's and queried whether fairer picture than she made with her dark brown curls floating over her shoulders, closely fitting calico dress and long check apron, was ever presented to vision. Her only ornament was a Maltese chain, suspended from her neck, with a cross, the latter of which may typify the trials she must expect to encounter from calumny and prejudice as she treads with free step the future's glorious aisles of art.

EFFICACY OF ONIONS.—A writer says: We are often troubled with severe coughs, the results of colds of long standing, which may turn to consumption or premature death. Hard coughs cause sleepless nights by constant irritation in the throat and a strong effort to throw off offenseive matter from the lungs. The remedy I propose has been tried by me and often recommended to others with good results, which is simply to take into the stomach before retiring for the night, a piece of raw onion, after chewing. The esculent in an uncooked state, is very heating, and tends to collect the waters from the lungs and throat, causing immediate relief to the patient. Sliced onion, in a raw state, will collect poison from the air, and also from the human system when taken internally, or externally applied to the arm pits.

GIGANTIC MONOPOLY.

George Alfred Townsend, writing from Canada to the Boston Post, makes the following curious statement concerning the Hudson Bay Company: "What is the gigantic monopoly, with two-thirds of a continent for its game preserve? Whence come this modern Nimrod, slaying his millions of beaver and buffalo every year? Are we aware that upon this hemisphere there is a private corporation owning nearly as much land as the United States? This is the Hudson's Bay Company, founded in 1670, sixty years before a house stood in Baltimore, twelve years before the Quakers sailed up the Delaware, and three years before Boston had a wharf. King Charles II. made the Hudson's Bay Company arbitrary and despotic over all the region watered by the streams of Hudson's Bay, and for two centuries its Governors have shut all this world away from civilized mankind. They have lied as to its capacity for cultivation, preferred to keep it a heathen wild for the hiding of wolves and catamounts, and the English Government has backed them up, to the wrong of the Canadian people, who have just been excluded from the fairest of the Northern lands. This enormous monopoly employs 3,000 white men to haul its boats and make up its furs, and 100,000 Indian hunters. With two million seven hundred thousand square miles under its control, only 120,000 people live in it. For 110 years it paid annual dividends of seventy per cent. As far back as 1689—a hundred years before our Government organized—it paid dividends of fifty per cent. It ate up a rival fur company, the "Northwestern," about forty years ago, and in 1865 sold one million two hundred thousand gold dollars worth of furs, which cost it in imports only two hundred thousand dollars. It has one hundred and sixty-four trading posts, is subject to no law, warns people of its immense estate as you would warn a man out of your office, and protests that grain shall not grow in the haunts of the raccoon, nor prayers be said where the lynx crunches the bones of the Indian squaw. This association of deer-slayers killed in 1856, 90,000 beavers, 161,000 martens, 2,000 lynxes, 10,000 bears, 33,000 foxes, 300,000 muskrats, 12,000 otters, 18,000 skunks, and about 30,000 lesser animals, besides 140,000 buffaloes. It gives the Indian a pint of glass beads and a bottle of rum for a silver fox skin, which it sells for $250 in gold. It steals, besides, from United States lands, $200,000 gold in furs every year, and we ought to have had a military post on Red River twenty years ago. At the north end of Lake Winnepeg there is a place called Norway House, where the Governors of five sub-territories meet Governor Dallas, commander over the mighty region, and the spoil of the year is promptly divided and the Indians duly swindled. The hunts for buffalo are two in number, each lasting two months, and begin respectively June 20 and November 10. The capital of the company is seven millions of gold dollars, and they own a million gold dollars' worth of property in American Oregon, secured to them by the treaty of 1846.

This cormorant company is now a stumbling block in the way of progress. It is a dark age romance to see its canoes come down the rapids freighted with furs; to see its files of half-breeds disappear into the forests where all the long year the Indian has been slaying the game, making a bloody wilderness war, lying in ambush against the wolf, and challenging the white bear to single combat. At last the long period of his hunting is over; the overflow of thirty millions of people will make a freshet up the streams of the Winnepeg to drown out beast and slayer toge ther, and take by the throat the uncircumcised corporation that would plant its avarice across the gates of a hemisphere and turn back the sluices of mankind.

A TOWER OF SKULLS.—Lamertine in his "Pilgrimage to the Holy Land," writes as follows:—"When I was about a league from Nisa, the last Turkish village, almost on the frontier of Servia, I saw a large tower rising up in the midst of the plain, as white as Parian marble, I sat down under the shade of the tower to enjoy a few moment's repose. No sooner was I seated than raising my eyes to the monument, I discovered that the walls which I supposed to be built of marble, or of regular rows of white stone, where composed of regular rows of human skulls. Bleached by rain and sun, and cemented by a little sand and lime, formed entirely the triumphal arch which now sheltered me from the rays of the burning sun; there might be from fifteen to twenty thousand. In some places, portions of hair were still hanging, and waved like lichen or moss, with every breath of wind. The mountain breeze was then blowing fresh, penetrating the innumerable cavities of the skulls, and sounded like a mournful and plaintive sigh. These were skulls of fifteen thousand Servians who had been put to death by the Pacha, in the late insurrection in Servia. However, Servia is now free, and this monument will teach their children the value of independence, by showing them the price at which their forefathers purchased it.

GOVERN THYSELF.—An Italian Bishop, who had endured much persecution with a calm and unruffled temper, was asked how he attained such a mastery over himself. "By making a right use of my eyes," said he. "I first look up to heaven, as the place whither I am going to live forever. I next look down upon the earth, and consider how small a space of it will soon be all that I occupy or want. I then look around me, and think how many are far more wretched than I am.

WHEN was beef-tea first made in England? When Henry VIII dissolved the Pope's bull.

NIGHT SCENE IN A BOARDING-HOUSE.

Mistakes in boarding houses for ladies and gentlemen are not unfrequent, and often they give rise to considerable gossip and scandal, receive the renown of a nine-days' wonder, and then are forgotten. We have heard of gentlemen mistaking their rooms because of the important fact of the doors, and frame work, and hall carpets, being pretty much like. Besides this, sometimes gentlemen are in a doubtful state of mental or vinous uncertainty, all bed rooms, at such times, are pretty much the same to them—in they go, and perhaps half undressed, throw themselves upon the bed, and soon become enwrapped in the dreamy embrace of somnus, flavored with Bacchusand tobacco.

Boarding houses furnish much material for shilling novels that would unquestionably sell well. This hint is gratuitously given to amateur authors, who may improve upon the following:

A lady, whose husband is in California, Calcutta or Chicago, suddenly awakened from her sleep the other morning about two o'clock, and springing from bed, dashed out of her room, en dishabille, screaming at the top of her voice, "Murder! help! murder! help! man in my room!" &c. &c. Under the circumstances this was quite natural, inasmuch as more than one mistake of this kind had happened in the house recently. Now, it appeared that no less than three husbands were absent when they should have been there, and consequently there was more or less wonder, mixed up with a species of apprehension, on the part of three wives, each one wondering whether it was her husband who had just forgotten himself or the room.

"Oh! come up quickly," shouted the terrified female, holding on to the outside door-knob, "I've got him in!"

"If it's my Josey," said another disconsolate, "I'll learn him better. Confound these night suppers; now he's been at one of them, and has mistaken the room, and there I've been alone all night."

"Has he got whiskers?" anxiously asked the wife, upon reaching the landing on the upper floor.

"Yes, ma'am, great big bushy whiskers, laying right alongside of my cheek when I awoke. Dear me, if my Alexander was here, he'd learn him better, I'll warrant you."

"Joseph! Joseph! Joseph!" shouted the wife at the door.

No answer came—not even a grunt, incident to inebriation.

"May be has jumped out of the window," suggested the four or five females, all at once, who made a splendid group of long white drapery.

"Here—help! bring a light—bring a light!" shouted several of the females.

Presently a light was brought, and several of the male boarders appeared, all armed to give the thief or robber such treatment as he had justly earned for himself.

The door was opened, and in rushed the valiant squad, and sure enough the fellow was still in bed, with the top of his head just peeping above the sheet.

"Come out of here, you scoundrel!" said one of the men, at the same time grasping him by the hair.

The tableau was strikingly interesting and graphic.

The resolute boarder almost fell from the impetus he had given himself, for, instead of jerking out a man, it was no thing more than a "frizzed chignon," which the lovely occupant of the bed had forgotten to take off when she retired for the night. It had been detached in her sleep, and grazing her check awakened her. The alarm, of course, was quite natural. The boarders had a hearty laugh, and all retired to happy dreams.—Philadelphia Press.

LOST TIME.—Let any man pass an evening in vacant idleness, or even in reading some silly tale, and compare the state of his mind when he goes to sleep or gets up next morning with its state some other day, when he has spent a few hour in going through the proofs by facts and reasoning of some of the great doctrines in natural science, learning truths wholly new to him, and satisfying himself by careful examination of the grounds on which known truths rest, so as to be not only acquainted with the doctrines of themselves, but able to show why he believes them, and to prove before others that they are true, will find as great a difference as can exist in the same being—the difference between looking back upon time unprofitably wasted, and time spent in self-improvement; he will feel himself in one case listless and dissatisfied; in the other comfortable and happy. In the one case, if he did not appear to himself humble, at least will not have earned any claim to his own respect; in the other case he will enjoy a proud consciousness of having by his own exertions become wiser, and therefore a more exalted nature.—Lord Brougham.

A DAY.—A Day! It has risen upon us from the great deep of eternity, girt round with wonder; emerging from the womb of darkness; a new creation of life and light spoken into being by the word of God. In itself one entire and perfect sphere of space and time, filled and emptied of the sun. Every past generation is represented in it; it is the flowering of all history, and in so much it is richer and better than all other days which have preceded it. And we have been recreated to new opportunities, with new powers—called to this utmost promontory of actual time, this centre of all coming life. And it is for to-day's work we have been endowed; it is for this we are pressed and surrounded with these faculties. The sum of our entire being being is concentrated here; and to-day is all the time we absolutely have.—Chapin.

HANDKERCHIEF FLIRTATIONS.

Some genius has recently reduced to a system the popular habit of getting up flirtations by means of handkerchiefs. The language of flowers is out of date. It is too elaborate and roundabout a mode of conveying the tender emotions. Commend us to the handkerchief. The use of it is so handy so natural, and so easily acquired, that any one who has tried it will at once perceive its advantages over the old complicated system. The handkerchief, too, is suggestive in connection with flirtations. Think of the troubles that poor Desdemona got into by not taking proper care of that ill-starred handkerchief which the Egyptian woman gave to old Mrs. Othello. Truly, as his Moorship remarked, "there's magic in the web of it." Let any one look in of a Saturday afternoon, to the matinees at some of our theatres, and he will say there is vast deal of meaning in a handkerchief. But hitherto it has been an unwritten language, and those who use it have known but little of its fundamental principles. Hence the many mistakes and misconceptions which too often follow, just as with two persons conversing in a language with which both are unfamiliar. The following key may serve as a useful guide to the young of both sexes who are ambitious to acquire this elegant accomplishment:—

Drawing across the lips—Desirous of getting acquainted.
Drawing across the eyes—I am sorry.
Taking by centre—You are too willing.
Dropping—We will be friends.
Twirling in both hands—Indifference.
Drawing across the check—I love you.
Drawing through the hands—I hate you.
Letting it rest on the right cheek—Yes.
Letting it rest on the left cheek—No.
Twirling in left hand—I wish to get rid of you.
Twirling in right hand—I love another.
Folding it—I wish to speak with you.
Over the shoulder—Follow me.
Opposition corners in both hands—Wait for me.
Drawing across the forehead—We are watched.
Placing on left ear—I have a message for you.
Letting it remain on the eye—You are cruel.
Winding it round fore-finger—I am engaged.

SPEAK KINDLY.

Much of the happiness in this world arises from giving utterence to hasty, unkind words. Many a sorrowful hour and sleepless night have been spent brooding o'er some harsh or angry word, which has dropped from the lips, in a moment of ungarded passion. How much pain we would save ourselves and others, if we would gard all our ways and actions. Kind words, spoken in the right time and place, do more to heal the wounded spirit than all the gold which this world can give. They cost nothing while they enrich the heart and scatter sunshine all around, winning many true and faithful friends.

A little word in kindness spoken,
A smile, perhaps a tear,
"Has often healed a heart that's broken,
And made a friend sincere."

How indellibly does a little act of kindness, performed at the right moment, impress itself upon the mind.

Many years ago a little child stopped to admire the flowers in a beautiful garden. It was an orphan, and already had felt the hand and bitter pangs of an orphan's lot. The owner of the garden noticed the child and spoke kindly to him.

"Do you love flowers?" said he.

"Oh, yes. We used to have beautiful flowers in our garden."

The man gathered some and handed them to the boy, saying as he did so, "here is a nice little bunch for you." The child took the flowers in a manner that plainly told his gratitude. It was an act of spontaneous kindness, and scarcely thought of again. Years went by, and through toil and poverty the child grew to manhood. It is said from ordeals like this sometimes come our best men. So it proved in the case of this orphan. We now find him respected and beloved by all that know him. Through all these years he has never forgotten the man who so long ago spoke that kind word. When he again met him it was not in the beautiful garden, cultivating the fragrant flowers, but in the cold and dismal abode of poverty. Then his was the hand stretched fourth to help the white haired old man in his hour of need. Thus the little act of kindness was doubly repaid, bringing to our mind the words of the beautiful hymn, "Kind words can never die."

LIVE FOR OTHERS.—God has writtn upon the flower that sweentens the air, upon the breeze that rocks the flower upon its stem, upon the rain drops that swell the mighty river, upon the dew-drop that refreshes the smallest sprig of moss that rears its head in the desert, upon the ocean that rocks every swimmer in its channel, upon every pencilled shell that sleeps in the caverns of the deep, as well as upon the mighty sun which warms and cheers the millions of creatures that live in its light—upon all has he written, "None of us liveth to himself."

The passion of the French, for theatrical amusements, and the patience with which they will wait at the doors of theatres for the sake of obtaining a good place for witnessing the performance are well known. At a great crowded French theatre a woman fell from the gallery into the pit, and was picked up by one of the spectators, who, hearing her groaning, asked her if she was much injured. "Much injured!" exclaimed the woman, "I should think I am. I have lost the best seat in the very middle of the front row."

MAKE the heart right, and the man will be right, the woman will be right, the child will be right; make the men, women and children right, and the name will be right; make the homes right, and the town and city will be right; make the towns and the cities right, and the States will be right, and the nation will be right; make the nations right, and the world will be right.

A GENTLEMAN called to see a tenement that was to be let. It was shown to him by a pretty, chatty woman, whose manners charmed her visitor. "Are you to be let, too?" inquired he, with a languishing look. "Yes," said she; "I am; I'm to be let alone."

A BOSTON wit, defining the difference between an accident and a misfortune, says: "If Andrew Johnson should fall into the Potomac river, it would be an accident. (Andy J. don't like water,) and if he should ever get out again, that would be a misfortune."

A LADY fell into a river, and a poor boy rescued her. When she was safe, her husband handed the brave fellow a shilling. Upon some of the bystanders expressing indignation, the latter said, as he pocketed the coin, "Well, may hap if I hadn't saved her, he'd have given me a sovereign."

BEAR AND FORBEAR.—If we would have life move on smoothly, we must learn to bear and forbear. We must indulge the friend we love in the little peculiarities of saying and doing things which may be important to him, but of little moment to us. Like children, we must suffer each one to build his playhouse in his own way, and not quarrel with him, because he does not think our way the best.

COLERIDGE was descanting, in the presence of Charles Lamb upon the repulsive appearance of the oyster. "It isn't handsome, Coleridge," said Lamb; "but it has the advantage of you in one thing." "What is that?" queried Coleridge, who as every body knows, was an exhaustless talker. "It knows when to shut its mouth," was the reply.

A BICKERING pair of Quakers were lately heard in high controversy, the husband exclaiming, "I am determined to have one quiet week with thee!" But how wilt thou be able to get it?" said the taunting spouse, in "reiteration," which married ladies so provokingly indulge in. "I will keep thee a week after thou art dead," was the Quaker's rejoinder.

WHAT is the difference between a rifleman who shoots wide of the target, and a husband who blackens his wife's eyes? The one misses his mark and the other marks his missis.

IT is a singular fact that ladies who know how to preserve everything else, can't preserve their tempers. Yet it may easily be done on the self-sealing principal. It is only to "keep the mouth of the vessel tightly closed.

"PATRICK, how long has it been since you left Ireland?" "Eighteen months, my Lord; but I've been there twice since."

FOOTE expressed the belief that a certain miser would take the beam out of his own eye, if he knew where he could sell the timber.

QUILP thinks it rather remarkable that while several thousand feet are required to make one rood, a single foot properly applied, is often sufficient to make one civil.

"I'LL teach you to play pitch and toss! I'll flog you for an hour, I will." "Father," instantly replied the incorrigible, as he balanced a penny on his thumb and finger, "I'll toss with you to make it two hours or nothing."

IMITATE the example of the locomotive. He runs along, whistles over his work, and yet never takes anything but water when he wants to "wet his whistle."

"I HAVE the best wife in the world," said a long suffering husband; "she always strikes me with the soft end of the broom."

AN Irishman applying for relief being told to work for his living, replied, "If I had all the work in the world, I could'nt do it."

"AM I not a little pale?" inquired a lady who was short and corpulent, of a crusty old bachelor. "You look more like a big tub?" was the blunt reply.

IT won't do to be so devoted to a tender hearted wife as to comply with her request when she asks you—"Now tumble over the cradle and break your neck, my dear, won't you?"

A gentleman met another in the street who was ill of consumption, and acosted him thus: "Ah? my friend, you walk slowly." "Yes," replied the man, "but I am going fast."

Men make their wills, but wives
Escape a work so sad;
Why should they make what all their lives
The gentle dames have had?

THE more a woman's waist is shaped like an hour glass, the more it shows us that her sands of life are running out.

A WOMAN'S tears are generally more effective than her words. In such cases, wind is a less powerful element than water.

IT is not so much trouble to get rich as i is to tell when we are rich.

A man who bumps his head against that of his neighbor isn't apt to think that two heads are better than one.

"I'LL take the responsibility," as Jenkins said when held out his arms for the baby.

WHO is the greatest poulterer in Shakspeare? Claudius, King of Denmark, because he "murdered most foul."

Nearly every evil has its compensation. If a man has but one foot, he never treads on his own toes.

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, OCT. 11, 1867.

AFTER THE ELECTION.

We often wonder what people find in stupid election returns that makes them so jubilant. Some fellow will announce that he has just received a telegram from Mr. Click, which states that Mr. Flop has a majority of two in Hardscrabble, which is a gain of one. Then off go the hats and open go many mouths, and they cheer until they are hoarse. For what? Couldn't anybody else run as many votes and more, if he had the popularity? Certainly. Then what is the use of so much clamor? We opine it is nothing but stupidity,—downright stupidity! Don't say election returns to us for the next nine months! We were obliged to make short work of a boy, with several fellows at his heels who thought they would enjoy some rare sport, who came into our sanctum to inform us that one Henry W. Williams was elected—well, we don't remember to what, but we mean to eat the next fellow bodily, who comes to tell us any stupid returns. That's so! Why does everybody want to tell us the returns? "Did you hear the returns from Woodberry?" says one. He is hardly gone when up comes another, grinning at us, with, "Did you see the returns from Woodberry?" It is enough to make a saint swear to be thus annoyed, and we have deliberately made up our mind not to stand it. Suppose Sharswood is elected,—it may be that he is, and it may be that he is not, we don't know,—but we can't see why we should be grinned at, laughed at and twitted about it. We don't care if he is,—it is not our fault; we had nothing to do with it, and don't mean to take any of the blame either. So keep away until we cool off.

EXTRAORDINARY COINCIDENCES.

We are not at all familiar with the doctrine of chances, but from recent occurrences within our experience, Prof. Pierce's calculation in the late Boston will case, in which he, after a careful calculation, concluded that the chances of an exact coincidence in the signatures of Miss Howland would be about one in two thousand six hundred and sixty-six millions of millions of times, sadly needs a revision. On the 30th of August last we wrote two editorial articles, entitled respectively, "Who are the Friends of the South," and "Removal of Sheridan," and on the 6th of September we wrote another entitled "Impeachment." On the 6th, 13th and 20th of September, respectively, the "Tazewell Republican," Pekin, Ill., contained three editorial leaders, one each week, exact counterparts, verbatim, et literatim, et punctuatim, with the exception of the caption of one, of ours. Now that these were not taken from our paper we are quite sure, for they are not credited to us or any one else. On the 27th of September we noticed a somewhat similar occurrence, having on that day written an article entitled "300,000 Lives—3,000,000,000 of Treasure"—precisely the same caption and the same words, contained in the first part of our article, appeared a few days later in an editorial article in the "Harrisburg Telegraph." Now these are but a few instances that occur to us out of a great number that we have noticed from time to time. We know they were not copied from us for they were not credited. We are, therefore, fully convinced of the error of Prof. Pierce's calculation, and specially request of him that he revise his work and see if he has not made an egregious blunder somewhere.

If any of our cotemporaries deem our charge against the accuracy of Prof. Pierce's mathematical calculation unwarrantable, we would call the "Montour American," "Mercer dispatch," "Shippensburg News" and "Lawrence Journal" to corroborate our charge by witnessing to recent similar coincidences.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

The enlightenment of the Democracy on the subject of the Constitution is wonderful. Even the most ignorant men, who can with difficulty—by partial attention manage to spell out plain printing—are thoroughly posted on the subject of Constitutional Law. We met a Democrat—so called—a few days since, who affirmed that by the Constitution it is expressly provided that Congress shall not emit bills of credit, or make anything else than gold and silver a legal tender. He said he had a copy of the Constitution and could show the clause, and went off to find it. We left about that time in order, if perchance he did find the work, he might have time to read it. And we have heard several of these enlightened expounders of the Constitution affirm that they had often read it and heard it read on tho Fourth of July.

If this claim of the Democrats to be the peculiar expounders of the Constitution would result in their reading the document and the proceedings of the convention that framed it, and the decisions of the court upon it, the manifestations of their conceited ignorance might be the more patiently borne. At present, however, those who are the most blatant about the Constitution are those who have read it the least and understand the least about it.

On last Wednesday the Cops organized themselves into a mob, a la Union men during the war, and called upon several Cop landlords in the town and gave them fifteen minutes to hang out the stars and stripes; of course the flags were swung out in less than no time. At the Mengel house the big flag that has floated across the street on every important occasion since the war, with Andrew Johnson in large characters, was flung to the breeze, and imagine our surprise when we noticed that the huge capitals—ANDREW JOHNSON—were taken off. The election is over and they bid good-bye to Andrew Johnson! This is very ungrateful and very ominous! As long as Andy could serve them they flattered him, now they are forsaking him in a manner that is anything but flattering. Straws show which way the wind blows.

SALT RIVER TICKETS are already in circulation. We don't exactly know who is going to use them, but if we have to go, we intend to take Mr. Schell's railroad via William Lashley's store in Southampton township. The scenery along this route is second to none other in the country, and it has the advantage of being a Bedford county institution. Hereafter an excursion to Southampton, via the Schell railroad, will supercede the trip to the salt river country.

THE result in the State is very close. Why this is the case it is needless for us to say. Almost every reader of the INQUIRER knows that the apathy throughout the country was, in a great measure, the cause. In this county several townships did not do their duty and the result is that there is an increased Copperhead majority. We expect to have something to say in regard to this matter in the future.

THE MORNING POST is the title of a very neat and spirited penny paper published in Philadelphia. The first issue appeared on Monday morning. It is edited by a former employee of the New York Tribune. All its cotemporaries predict for it a brilliant future.

RICHARDS and WELLER are elected by handsome majorities. The people are determined not to have railroads forced upon them. Vale Schell!

UP to the time of going to press the Republican State Central Committee still claim the State, and our opinion is that Mr. Williams is elected by a small majority.

PREDICTIONS ABOUT THE WINTER.—We see it generally stated that European meteorologists are predicting an early and hard winter this year, for the reason that the birds of passage have begun their migration southwards at least a month earlier than usual. Storks, wild ducks and other birds, are reported to be passing southwards over France and Belgium in large numbers. Similar signs of a severe winter have from time to time, been noted in our own country, and we are inclined to attach more importance to them than weather prophesies usually deserve. Meteorologists say a wet summer signifies a dry winter, and dry winters are always proverbially cold. Housekeepers should make a note of this inference, which we think will prove correct.—Evening Star.

THE Springfield Republic states that the heirs of the celebrated John estate, which is good for sixty-three millions of dollars, held a meeting on Wednesday to decide upon what measures shall be taken. About seventy-five of the family are in the city.

GRANT.

Hon. E. B. Washburne Defines the General's Position—He is in Sympathy with Congress.

The Hon. E. B. Washburne, in his speech at Galena, Illinois, on Saturday, thus defined Grant's political opinions, and from his intimacy with the General, it is probable he spoke by authority. He said General Grant was among the first to comprehend the results that would grow out of the rebellion, and the country will not forget that as early as 1863 he wrote a letter saying that anxious as he was for peace, he did not wish to see it established until slavery was wiped out. In 1864 he was profoundly anxious for the re-election of Mr. Lincoln, and no man more fully comprehended the great fact that upon his re-election hinged the success of our cause and the suppression of the rebellion. He so far departed from his usual course in such matters as to write and permit the publication of a letter in which he briefly and emphatically summed up the whole question. The letter was published by hundreds of thousands by the Republican Congressional Committee, and exerted great influence in the country. He was openly and strong for both the constitutional amendments, and he hailed the Reconstruction act of the Thirty-ninth Congress as the solution of our difficulties, and he entered upon the discharge of his duties under that act with zeal, vigilance, and fidelity. Sympathizing with Congress in its action, and appreciating the importance of its being in session, he urged and advised such action as would secure an extra sesion, if necessary. When that session came he expressed the most serious fears of the effect of a long adjournment, and with a far reaching sagacity anticipating the precise state of things that has occurred, he used all his influence with Senators to have them adopt the House provision of the amended bill requiring the assent of the Senate to the removal of the district commanders. Favoring the Reconstruction acts, no efforts of his has been wanting to secure their enforcement in the letter and spirit, to the end that the Union might be speedily and fully restored. He believed there is no protection or safety to the colored people and the loyal white people in the rebel States except through impartial suffrage. The Reconstruction acts having recognized the entire equality of all American citizens in the States lately in rebellion, he believes that consistency, as well as impartial justice, demands that there should be no discrimination against any class of persons in any of the States. His sympathies, his convictions and his hopes are now, as they always have been, with the great patriotic and loyal people that carried the country through the war. He is in favor of upholding the honor and credit of the national government, and holds that all our obligations must be discharged in conformity to the terms on which they were contracted. He thinks that there should be exercised by Congress and by departments of the government a more rigid and searching economy in the expenditures of the public money, and wherever he has had control he has struck off every useless expense and reformed every abuse. General Grant occupies at the present time the position of Secretary of War ad interim in the Cabinet of Mr. Johnson. His action in accepting that position had been the subject of a great deal of comment, and excited the fears of many good and loyal men. It invoked the denunciation of enemies and brought forth the excuses of friends. He accepted that position, not, as has been alleged in obedience to the commands of a superior officer, but from the stern sense of duty to his country.

Should he refuse, and permit that most important position to be filled by a Copperhead and a Johnson man, who would hinder reconstruction, who would demoralize the army, who would sanction fraudulent and bogus claims of rebels, and bring reproach generally upon the public service? Gen. Grant did not, therefore, hesitate to accept the position and all its responsibilities, and his action had the concurrence of Mr. Stanton. Indeed, no steps were taken in that whole business except upon full consultation and understanding between those two distinguished men under such circumstances. The loyal men of the country would have cause to censure Gen Grant had he refused the position. The very men who had censured him most for taking it, would now have been censuring for not taking it. They would have said that, professing to be in sympathy with loyal men and in favor of reconstruction, he shrank from the responsibility of a place offered to him in which he could have been of inestable service to the country, and by such refusal the War Department went into the hands of an enemy. But the General wants no other vindication for his action than will be furnished by his record when it shall see the light, and by his official acts. He can offord to wait. In conclusion Mr. Washburne said he was not speaking of Gen. Grant as a candidate for the Presidency, for he had no right to speak for him in that regard. He had spoken as he had because so many of his fellow citizens had asked him in relation to the position the General occupied on questions of the most overwhelming public importance, and what were his views, sentiments, and convictions touching matters in which all good citizens felt so deep an interest.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

Conflict Between Insurgents and the Papal Troops—Proclamation of Garibaldi—Volunteers Invading the Papal Territory on all Sides—The Papal Troops Beaten.

LONDON, Oct. 4—Midnight.—The latest dispatches received from Italy, though conflicting, are highly important. A message has just been received from Florence announcing the clash of arms. The insurgent troops, holding a strong position near Bagnarea, in Viterbo, were attacked by the Papal forces. A short, sharp fight ensued, which resulted in the defeat of the attacking party, who were obliged hastily to withdraw. The loses in the engagement are not stated. The effect of this victory is very inspiriting to the Party of Action. A public meeting of the friends of Garibaldi was held at Turin yesterday. Revolutionary speeches were made by many distinguished persons. Great crowds of people were present, and the enthusiasm was unbounded. Meetings of a like character are in contemplation in other cities of Italy. Though a prisoner at Caprera, Gen. Garibaldi has issued a stiring address to his followers, which is published to-day all over Europe. He rerites at length the grievances of Italy, and asks his countrymen to redress them now. He appeals strongly to their patriotism, and urges all his friends to march forthwith to Rome.

FLORENCE, Oct. 7—a. m.—The reports which are hourly received here from the South show that the revolutionary volunteers are invading the Roman Territory on all sides. Yesterday a detachment of troops was sent out from Rome to meet the invaders in Frosinone, a Province lying southeast of the city. A fight took place between them and the Garibaldians near the Abriezze Frontier. The Papal troops were again defeated and compelled to fall back toward Rome.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—A report is current that Prussia receives with favor the appeal of the Italian Government to the European Powers against the Treaty of September, and will support the demands of Italy in regard to Rome.

PARIS, October 8.—The Italian Ambassador and the Marquis Moustier have met at Biarritz to consult with the Emperor upon the Roman question, and it is understood that a plan of action has been decided. Italy is to take possession of the Roman in Rome, keeping the temporal power till his neath, when it is to cease forever.

SHERIDAN.

His Reception in Boston—"Little Phil" Makes a Speech—Grand Ovation.

BOSTON, October 7.—Major General Sheridan's reception to-day was a magnificent affair. He reached here about eleven o'clock. The day was observed as a holiday; all of the schools, private and public, and places of business were closed. The reception was one of the finest ever given in this city. Fully six thousand soldiers and numerous private societies composed the procession. The distinguished guest was received at the railroad depot by the mayor, and after an interchange of courtesies, entered a carriage and was escorted by the procession to the Revere House. On reaching the hotel the General made a short speech, thanking the immense multitude for their approval of his actions. This evening Governor Bullock met the General and his staff at the Revere House, and welcomed him. To-night a torch-light procession is parading through the principal streets in honor of the Hero of the Valley. He was also honored by a serenade by Gilmore's band. In reply to the Mayor's address he said:

MR. MAYOR:—I regret that want of words prevents my expressing, in fitting terms, my gratitude and high esteem for the reception and welcome I have received here to-day. I am greatly obliged for your approval of my actions heretofore during the time our country was in trouble in the cause of freedom and progress. I return my sincere thanks to yourself and the citizens of Boston for this kind welcome.

The ceremony of introduction and speech making being over, General Sheridan was conducted to the Mayor's carriage, which, with the others, then moved down the line of troops, taking position at the head of the column, near the corner of Oak street, the military in line extending over one mile in length. The troops presented arms as he rode past, and there was continued cheering by the crowd who filled the street. The procession started shortly before twelve o'clock, and was an hour in passing a given point. It included about six thousand soldiers and eleven bands of music.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

VIRGINIA.

Alexander Rives and a colored man were nominated by the Republicans of Albemarle, Va., on Tuesday, for the State Convention. The same night they were burned in effigy by the opposition.

LOUISIANA.

The New Orleans Republican has returns from twelve parishes, including Orleans, giving a total vote of twenty-eight thousand six hundred and thirty one, and a majority of the registered voters of one thousand six hundred and eighteen. In every parish heard from a majority of the persons registered voted. It is supposed that nearly every one of the remaining thirty six parishes will swell the majority of votes.

ALABAMA.

There has been two days' voting in Alabama. In Montgomery 4,539 votes were cast on the first day; in Selma, 3,300 on the first day; in Opelika on the first day, 1,500, in Wetumbka, 1,000—all for the convention. The second day's vote stood 820 blacks and 24 whites, with very few exceptions for a convention. No disturbances occurred.

LOUISIANA.

Advices of a trustworthy character have been received here which show that the Louisiana convention has been called by a majority of about seventy thousand votes, though it appears that at least twenty thousand of the registered votes were not cast.

TEXAS.

Private letters of a perfectly reliable character from La Grange, Texas, tell a pitiable story of the unparalleled sufferings of the people in that town and its vicinity. Those remaining of the citizens number barely 500, yet the interments have reached as high as twenty-four in two days. The average mortality is eight. Those stricken by the fever are almost sure to die, the disease proving fatal in nine cases out of ten. Every house in the town is filled with sickness and with death. Business has ceased entirely; the newspapers are no longer published; the jail has been emptied of its inmates, who have fled in terror from the scene of desolation. In some cases there is no one to bury the dead.

A REBEL OPINION OF GEN. GRANT'S POSITION.—A special correspondence to the Baltimore Gazette, dated at Washington, October 1, 1867, says: "The newspapers at a distance have been puzzled at the "position" of General Grant. I can relieve that anxiety. He is now substantially the Radical candidate for the next Presidency. The leaders of the party which aims at usurping the Government, who have in squads been visiting, at intervals, the metropolis ever since the emeute of Stanton's removal, some time ago came to the conclusion, in view of their probable defeat at the coming elections, to keep Grant in the background for the present. He was anxious to promulge a written adhesion to the dogmas of the destructives at once. I have specific information that this Goliah is reserved to break the force of the defeat which awaits the party, and that he has promised Schenck, Logan, Washburne, Farnsworth, &c., who have been recently manipulating him, to come out with his 'great name' upon the heel of their discomfiture. The spasmodic efforts of Judge Chase are quite superfluous. I record this fact for future reference.

SUNSPOTS AND METEORIC SHOWERS.—Mr. Schwabe has noticed a connection between these two classes of phenomena. He finds that the minimum of spot frequently coincides very remarkably with the recurrence of meteoric showers, the period of rotation of which, viz., 33,2 years, agrees with a larger period of the sun spots. In 1833 there was an extreme scarcity of spots (only 33 very small groups being observed), and in 1865-7, after 33 years, the phenomena repeats itself. From the 1st of January to June 8, he had observed only six small groups, and out of 133 days of observation there were 100 without spots. In the year 1848, which is the middle of the 33:2 years period, there was a maximum of spots. If the 33 years period should be established by future observations, then a maximum of meteoric showers would always occur after three years of the usual sunspot periods.—New York Tribune.

THE Tuscarawas Advocate says: As an illustration of the advantages resulting from manufactures, we need only look to our neighboring town of Canton. Not many years ago Canton was one of the dullest and least progressive towns in Ohio. Instead of increasing in wealth and population, it was retrograding, as no one thought it worth while to locate there, and the young and energetic were leaving for more progrsssive localities. Finally, one man, a Mr. Ball, having invented an improvement in mowing machines proposed that the citizens of Canton should loan him $10,000, to manufacture them at that place. They did it, and that one factory was the nucleus around which the following have gathered. Two immense agricultural implement manufactories, one of plows exclusively, one of stoves and hollow-ware, one of paper and mower knives, one of saddlery hardware, two of furniture, one of horse rakes, one of farm wagons, one of cultivators, one of wrought iron bridges, one of soap, besides a large number of others more or less extensive.

A FOREIGN journal announces that the railway from Paris to Strasburg has now three-story cars, for first, second and third-class passengers.

THE case of General Fitz John Porter, for a new trial, has not been decided by the Attorney General—that is, the legal points which were referred to him by the President.

RETURNS from thirty-four counties in Alabama, about half the State, show that the convention has eleven thousand more votes than the requisite half.

GOVERNOR Geary has appointed Reuben Guth, a well known editor of Allenton, an associate Judge of Lehigh county, vice Longnecker, declined.

THE fall session of Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, opened on Monday, with an addition of forty-five new students, being the largest accession of new students since the organization.

One of the saloons in Nashville, Tenn., employs a hack to carry off its customers as fast as they become intoxicated. No fare is required, and the happy beings are insured against the police and the workhouse.

THE falls of the Yellowstone are attracting much attention. The river is precipitated over a precipice sixteen hundred feet high, and loses itself in a lake twenty-five or thirty miles in circumference.

A DIAMOND in the rough state was found at Camden, Miss., during the war, but at the time was considered no value. Since then it has been examined, and, in the opinion of intelligent men, it is worth $50,000.

BONNER says he prides himself on two things. These are, "In demonstrating that a paper of high moral tone will be the most successful, and that a private gentleman can drive and own the best horses in the country without making a gambler of himself."

THE contest for the United States Senatorship, which has been the leading topic for months past, is narrowing down to a focus. The prominent candidates for the position are Hon. W. B. Stobs and Hon. Horace Maynard. Governor Brownlow is not an aspirant for the office.

THE Fair just closed at Dayton has been one of the most successful ever held in the State. The number of tickets sold amounted to seventy-four thousand seven hundred and sixtythree. The receipts were $18,692 98. To these should be added a little more than $2,000 received from the refreshment stands.

GEN. Schofield orders two ballot boxes to be furnished for the Virginia election—one for the colored voters and the other for the whites. He further tells them that any one who shall by force, fraud or intimidation, attempt to prevent any qualified elector from voting will be tried and punished by Military Commision.

THE extraordinary growth of vegetation in Florida is astonishing the people of that State. It is reported that there is near St. Johns a single tomato plant, spreading like the panyan tree, which has entirely covered a bed eighteen feet square. It had produced about six bushels of fruit up to the latter part of August and was still producing—a bushel or more being on it sometimes at once.

GENERAL FREMONT is now pushing a railroad through the Mexican provinces of Chihuahua and Sonora, that will connect the Rio Grande and the James River via Little Rock and Memphis, with Guaymus, in California; hence, before the expiration of another year, it is expected that Richmond will be in direct railroad communication with San Francisco.

AN exploration of the falls of the Ohio, at Louisville, is now being made with diving bells and other suitable apparatus, in search of lost treasure, under the guidance of clairvoyant knowledge. Seven steam boilers, two wrecks of steamers, two locomotives, a safe with a cool million inside, and other valuables without number or mention, are to be fished out.

ADDITIONAL particulars of the riot at Jefferson City, Louisiana, shows that an ex-rebel named Rolland, commenced a general onslaught with a revolver on the colored people at the polls, assisted by a few of his political friends. The negroes were badly wounded, but the rest of the crowd returned the fire, killing Rolland and dangerously wounding one of his co-rioters. The military soon arrived on the ground and quieted the matter.

MR. Smalley writes to the Tribune from London a correction of the belief in this country that Carlyle is an enemy to the United States. He says: "I affirm of my own knowledge that Carlyle's feelings were of a kind very different from these. He disbelieved in the ideas on which the American Republic is built, but for America, for the people of America, and for the fidelity and courage which marked the struggle of the North for the Union he has often expressed his cordial liking and admiration."

IF the intelligence furnished by a city of Mexico correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune can be relied upon, we may conclude that another reign of terror has been inaugurated in the wretched Mexican republic which will eclipse in bloodthirstiness the darkest period in the history of the late empire. A large number of liberal officers have been imprisoned and others executed for insubordination, and the work of blood and the dungeon is only stopped for the present on account of popular disgust and indignation. The army itself is reported to be "split into factions and ripe for revolt." We hardly know what credit to place upon these reports; but the Picayune seems to give credence to them, and editorially declares that "the empire is not dead."

GEN. Sherman is at Washington, totally ignorant of the object of the President in sending for him.

THE Copperheads of Philadelphia celebrated their local victory by parading through the streets Tuesdaya night to the tune of Dixie.

OVER fifty tons of grapes were received at Sandusky for transhipment to the East the last three days of last week.

TOBACCO CROP.—The St. Louis Democrat has compiled the following statement of the tobacco crop: Missouri is reported at from 12,000 to 15,000 hogsheads. This is far beyond an average crop, but it is said the quality of the tobacco is unusually good. In Virginia the crop has fallen off one-third —it is reported at 70,000,000 pounds—but "is the best ever made as respects quality." In some counties of North Carolina, lands which had been previously devoted to tobacco were this year planted with cotton. The yield of that state is 35,000,000 pounds. The yield for Maryland is placed at 35,000,000 pounds; Tennessee at 30,500,000; Kentucky at 61,000,000; Texas at 90,000; Alabama at 270,000; Arkansas at 1,700,000; Florida and Georgia each 600,000; Louisiana at 40,000; South Carolina at 35,000, and the Northern States at 52,100,500.

THE PRICE OF FOOD.—The European demand for our wheat will be great in the opinion of the New York World, "We are threatened with an entire absorption of that surplus which we have hoped to see in store at the close of navigation." We have heard a good deal about the immensity of our harvests this season; but we begin to fear that the flour market will not exhibit the marked decline consumers have been fondly expecting so long past—and high prices of bread mean dull trade in nearly all other branches of business However, we can hope for still better crops next year, and in the meantime strive to thwart speculation by encouraging and pushing ahead the co-operative purchasing system.—Evening Star.

ORIGIN AND HISTORY OF THE BOOKS OF THE BIBLE.
BY PROF. CALVIN E STOW, D. D.

A work of real value, and an almost indispensable companion of the Bible, showing what the Bible is not, what it is, and how to use it; answering all the objections to its authenticity urged by modern infidels, and tracing the authority of each book up to its inspired authors, giving a vast amount of information heretofore locked up in very rare and costly volumes, making one of the most popular books ever published.

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—It affords us the highest pleasure to be able to announce that our Agricultural Fair, held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week, was not only a complete success, but one of the best ever held in the County. This is the more gratifying, from the fact that the notice given was so short that there was really no time for preparation and therefore, while the fair was actually the best we have ever had, it was an impromptu effort. If timely notice had been given we have no doubt, but that the show would have been far superior. Under the circumstances it was simply an exhibit of the average production of the county without special effort. Viewing it in this light we have good reason to congratulate our agricultural community on the marked progress they have made since the last fair held in this place. The show of stock was good. The display of fruit flowers and vegetables of every kind was particularly fine. Many of the vegetables could not be surpassed anywhere. There was also a very creditable show of house plants and flowers. The fruit was as fine as we have ever seen, and shows an increased interest and very creditable progress in the department of Horticulture. Marked attention was attracted by fifty-six different kinds of apples, nearly all choice varieties and twenty-five different kinds of choice pears exhibited by T. M. Lynch; also to a fine show of grapes and pears exhibited by Maj. D. Washabaugh. The finest lot of Duchess D'Augouleme pears we have ever seen, was exhibited by Mr. Simon Naus, all grown upon a dwarf tree in his lot; they were the centre of attraction in the fruit Department. Premiums were awarded to Robert Montgomery for the finest basket of Seckel pears, S. S. Diehl for the finest apples and William England for the best basket of peaches. We have not yet seen the list of premiums awarded and recite these from memory of reports read on the grounds. The list of premiums will be published in full next week. General satisfaction is expressed everywhere, both with the display and the manner in which the fair was conducted. An immense crowd was in attendance each day and not a single accident or unpleasant occurrence of any kind marred the pleasure of those in attendance. All seemed to enjoy the occasion and embrace the opportunity for an exchange of kindly greetings with old friends and acquaintances. We understand that it has already been determined to hold another fair next year and that timely notice will be given for the fullest preparation. These yearly gatherings always result in substantial benefit in exciting emulation and thereby leading to improvement and progress, among a worthy class of our community whose calling necessarily prevents frequent communication with their more distant neighbors. Sociability and health are also promoted by the few days of recreation and the mingling and becoming acquainted with the citizens of all parts of the county. We hope to see the effort to establish regular annual fairs meet with the most abundant success.

A SWINDLE.—We again caution our readers against encouraging any of the thousand and one fraudulent gift enterprises that are peddled about the country. The latest dodge of the kind is called the "Washington Library Association," which professes to found with the proceeds of the enterprise, an Orphan Asylum to be called the "Riverside Institute," somewhere in the sands of New Jersey: at the same time promising to Greenhorn a magnificent gift of a farm, house and lot, or piano, for ONE DOLLAR. Wm. B. Mann, Esq., of Philadelphia, is President of this concern. It is surprising that a man of his position should lend his name to it. It must pay.

"HUSBANDS, LOVE YOUR WIVES," and give them Plantation bitters Bitters when they are suffering from Nervousness, General Debility Faintness, Spasms, or any of the thousand and one diseases to which the weaker sex is liable. Having yourselves experienced the benefit of their use, extend the BLESSING to others. This invaluable tonic will chase Hypochondria or "the Blues"—give tone to the damaged nervous system—gently stimulate languid secretions—dispel vapors and ennui, and generally build up the worn constitution. For each sex and all ages it is a gentle stimulant and refreshing cordial. Millions of bottles are sold daily all over the world.

THE following is the reason why shooting stars didn't appear when expected: "When the mologisistic temperature of the horizon is such as to cloricise the imperient identation of the hemisphere analogy, the cohesion of the borax curbistus becomes surcharged with infinitesimals, which are thereby virtually deprived of their fissurial disquisitions. This effected, a rapid change is produced in the thoramouper of the gymbasticustus polerium, which causes a convacular in the hexagonal antibathes of the terrustrium aqua of ceremoucler light, which can only be seen when it is visible."

EVERY SATURDAY.—This popular Weekly presents its readers just those portions of European current literature which every intelligent American wishes and needs to see. Omitting the heavier papers, and discussions of topics of local interest, it gathers from all sources the readable and instructive articles which express the best current thought of England and the Continent, and with the utmost promptness places them before American readers. Any good story, any popular sketch or essay any interesting semi-scientific paper, any striking poem, or literary intelligence appearing in a European periodical, is sure to reappear speedily in the pages of Every Saturday. It is published by Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW for September (Reprint by Leonard Scott Publishing Co. 140 Fulton Street New York) is on our table. We note its contents as follows—Moral Theories and Christian Ethics, English Vers de Societe, Concilia Scotiae, Carstens Hauch and his latest Poem, M. Gustave Dore, The Great Pyramid, Early Years of the Prince Consort, The Achievements and The Moral of 1867.

WE call the attention of our readers to the Prospectus of The Methodist which will be found in our column of new advertisements.

W. J. STATLER has left two sweet potatoes at our office, raised by him at Prospect Hill, in Napier township, weighing eight pounds. They are the finest specimens of Bedford county sweet potatoes we have ever seen.

THE Prospectus of the New York Observer, in our column of new advertisements, offers liberal terms to all persons wanting a good religious newspaper, It is published under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church, but is eminentty liberal and is largely patronized by other denominations.

DICKENS COMING IN NOVEMBER.—Tickno & Fields have received a Cable despatch announcing that Charles Dickens has decided to visit this country, to give reading from his own works in the principal cities. Mr. Dickens will arrive in November, and begin his readings during the first week of December.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Sellers, wife of Mr. Jacob Sellers, proprietor of the Washington hotel, in Chambersburg, died very suddenly, one night last week. After retiring in the evening she complained of illness, and before a physician arrived she was dead. Mrs Sellers was a most estimable lady, and her sudden death is deeply lamented.

SOMETHING FOR THE LADIES.—The Herald of Health for October comes to us freighted as usual with useful knowledge and timely hints upon health, physical development, and the laws of life. The present number possesses special attractions for the ladies, containing three interesting articles, viz.: "Letters to Ladies," by Mrs. D. Gleason; "A Letter to Young Girls," by Mrs. Dr. Miller; and "Farmers' Wives," by Helen Mar. It also contains contributions from Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Moses Coit Tyler, Professor Rufus King Browne, Phœbe Cary, Drs. Taylor, Snodgrass, and others. $2 a year—20 cents for Sample or Single Numbers. Miller, Wood & Co., No. 15 Laight Street, N. York.

THE LADY'S FRIEND for November. This number is remarkably good. The Steel Engraving "Learning to Sew" is a sweet, quiet home picture. The Fashion Plate is stylish and gay; nothing of the kind in the country is worth looking at compared with the elegant refinement of the fashions as shown by this magazine. The Wood Cuts lead off with some captivating skating costumes, and some illustrations of a novel and most convenient kind of hood; and include a wonderful variety of things interesting to ladies. There are two pages of Music.

Great inducements in the way of Premiums &c., are promised to new subscribers, and our readers should send for a sample copies containing all these liberal offers. Sample copies will be sent for fifteen cents.

Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; Four copie (with one engraving) $6.00. One copy of Lady's Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

THE CHURCH UNION.—"The Freest Organ of Thought in the World."—Owing to the unprecedented reception of this paper it has been enlarged to double its original size, and is now among the largest, best, and most liberal, as well as cheapest family newspapers in the world.

It is the organ of no sect, but will aim to represent every branch of the Church of Christ, as well as every society organized for the purpose of Evangelizing the world.

It is Trinitarian in Creed, but favors free discussion of all subjects not already settled by the universal consent of the Church of all ages. It will oppose Ritualism and Infidelity, and advocate a free pulpit for Christ's ministers and a free communion-table for all the Lord's people.

It will favor universal suffrage and equal rights to every man and woman of whatsoever nationality, and will oppose all human instruments contrived by men for the enslavement of the consciences of men.

It will publish a sermon by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher every Monday at 12 o'clock. This sermon is not copyrighted, nor does it come under the eye of Mr. Beecher before publication, and will be a faithful report of the Great Preacher of Freedom. Writers and editors of every branch of the Church are engaged on this paper.

Terms $2.50; $1,00 to agents for every subscriber. The usual premiums of sewing-machines, etc., will be offered. For sale by the American News Company, for 5 cents.

The Truth about Dyspepsia.

Whoever says that dyspepsia is incurable, tells a—that is to say, makes an egregious mistake. More than ten thousand aggravated cases have been cured by HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, while the number that have been prevented from coming to a head, by the same means, is incalculable. In this season of the year, when the appetite is sometimes too vigorous for the comfort and safety of the stomach, indigestion is most prevalent and most distressing. Is the appetite to be balked to accommodate the digestive organs? Not so; for then the frame would lack its due proportion of nutriment. The thing to be done is to STRENGTHEN THE STOMACH, tone the liver, and put the bowels in perfect order. Nothing will do this so effectually, so rapidly, so quietly, so pleasantly, as HOSTETTER'S BITTER'S. This potent preparation trims and balances the system, and clothes it as it were, with defensive armor. Chronic dyspepsia, liver complaint, and fever and ague are never known to attack those who are wise enough to invoke the aid of this great preventive. oct4

Dr Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

This great medicine cured by Dr. J. H. Schenck the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him, He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers' price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—There is less doing in flour, but the market, in sympathy with the rise in wheat, has an upward tendency; sales of 400@500 barrels extra family at $10 50@11.25 per barrel for Northwest, at $11 @12.50 for Pennsylvania and Ohio, including 100 barrels second grade St. Louis at $13, fancy at $13.50, and superfine at $7.50@8.50. There is nothing doing in rye flour and corn meal. There is very little wheat here, and prime is in demand; 2,000 bushels prime and choice red sold at $2,45@2.70. Rye is steady, and we report further sales at $1.65@1.68. Corn is in good request; sales of 400 bushels mixed Western at $1.43@1.44, and some yellow at $1.48. Oats unchanged; sales of 2,000 bushels Pennsylvania at 75@77c. In barley and malt no further quotations.

NEW YORK, Oct.8—Flour is dull and drooping. Southern sells at $10@15, and extra State at $10.55@11. Wheat is quiet but steady; No. 2 spring sells at $2.30@1.32. Corn—mixed sells at $1.36@138 and buoyant, and Southern white at $1.42. Oats 77 @88c. Barley $1.50@1.60. Rye $1.65@1.79. Whiskey is quiet, and quoted at 35@38c in bond. Pork is quoted at $23.80 for mess. Bacon—Cumberland sells at 11c and short ribbed at 14c. Tallow 12@12½c. Lard 14¼@15c. Cotton is steady at 20½c.

BOOK AGENTS WANTED
to solicit orders for a new BIBLE DICTIONARY. Complete in one volume. This Dictionary embodies the results of the most recent study, research and investigation, of about sixty-five of the most eminent and advanced Biblical Scholars now living. Clergymen of all denominations approve it, and regard it as the best work of the kind in the English Language, and one which ought to be in the hands of every Bible reader in the land.

In circulating this work, Agents will find a pleasant and profitable employment. The numerous objections which are usually encountered in selling ordinary works will not exist with this.

But, on the contrary, encouragement and friendly aid will attend the Agent, making his labors agreeable, useful, and lucrative.

Ladies, retired Clergymen, School Teachers, Farmers, Students, and all others who possess energy, are wanted to assist in canvassing every Town and County in the country, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS

Are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first class instrument.

The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

For sale wholesale and retail by.
E. M. BRUCE,
18 N. Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

☞ Send for descriptive circular and price list.

The effect of your "TREMOLO" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—Geo. W. Morgan. (The first Organist of America.

No TREMOLO has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—Wm. A. Johnson, Pipe Organ Builder.

ESTEY'S Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—Geo. Jardine, Pipe Organ Builder.

The Cottage Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. Heintz, Organist, Findlay, O.

I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—Bishop Simpson.

We know of no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—Independent.

For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—Methodist.

Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Esty instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Church, Bedford. July 12 1867 9m

VALUABLE FARM
AT PRIVATE SALE.

The subscriber wishing to move West, will sell the Farm whereon he now resides, situated on the waters of the Raystown Branch of the Juniata, in Napier township, Bedford county, Pa., ten miles west of Bedford, and 2½ miles south of Schellsburg, containing 377 acres and 8 perches, with a large double Log House, weather-boarded, large double Log Barn, with other out-buildings, thereon erected. Also, a good Tenant House on the upper end of the Farm. About 240 acres are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, the balance well timbered. About 230 acres of this land is of the best Sandy Bottom, good for either wheat, corn or grass. The balance is slate land, very good for wheat. The Drove Road passes by the door. The track of the Southern Pennsylvania Railroad passes through the farm, within a short distance of the house. There is a fine young orchard of choice fruit near the house; also, a good sugar camp on the farm, and water in nearly every field. Any person wishing to purchase a No. 1 farm will do well to look at this one, as it is one of the best for either a grain or stock farm in this part of the State. Persons wishing to look at the property can do so by calling on the subscriber living on the premises.

DENTISTRY! DENTISTRY!

A Beautiful Set of Teeth for TEN DOLLARS!

DR. H. VIRGIL PORTER,
(LATE OF NEW YORK CITY,)
DENTIST,

Would respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has located permanently in BLOODY RUN, where he may be found at all times prepared to insert from one tooth to a full set of his BEAUTIFUL ARTIFICIAL TEETH on new and improved atmospheric principles.

The TRIUMPH OF MECHANICAL DENTISTRY RUBBER for the basis of artificial teeth.

This discovery which has met with such universal approval throughout this and other countries, has seemingly placed ARTIFICIAL TEETH at the disposal of all who require them. DR. PORTER is now inserting the most BEAUTIFUL and DURABLE at prices ranging from per set. Temporary sets inserted if desired. All operation warranted.

☞ Teeth extracted without pain by the use of NITROUS OXIDE or LAUGHING GAS.

This is no humbug, but a positive fact. Gas administered fresh every day. As the Gas administered by Dr. Porter is prepared in accordance with the purifying method of Dr. Strong, of New Haven, Ct., and Prof. Siliman (late Professor of Chemistry in Yale College) he has no hisitation in asserting that it is attended with no danger whatever. Persons desiring the services of a Dentist would promote their own interest by calling upon Dr. Porter, as he is determined to spare no effort to please the most fastidious. Dr. Porter's mode of operating will at all times be of the mildest character, avoiding the infliction of the slightest unnecessary pain, and carefully adapted to the age, constitution, health and nervous condition of the patient.

☞ Special attention is invited to Dr. Porter's scientific method of preserving decayed and aching teeth. Teeth blackened and diseased, cleansed to appear beautiful and white.

H. VIRGIL PORTER,
Dentist.
Bloody Run, Penn'a., March 28, 1867.-1y.

TRIUMPH IN DENTISTRY.

TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
By the use of Nitrous Oxide Gas, and is attended with no danger whatever.

TEMPORARY SETS
inserted if called for. Special attention will be made to diseased gums and a cure warranted or no charge made.

TEETH FILLED
to last for life, and all work in the dental line done to the entire satisfaction of all or the money refunded. Prices shall correspond with the times.

I have located permanently in Bedford, and shall visit Schellsburgh the 1st Monday of each month, remaining one week; Bloody Run the 3d Monday, remaining one week; the balance of my time I can be found at my office 3 doors South of the Court House, Bedford, Pa.

WM. W. VAN ORMER,
Nov. 23, 1866. Dentist.

DENTISTRY.
I. N. BOWSER, RESIDENT DENTIST, WOODBERRY, Pa., visits Bloody Run three days of each month, commencing with the second Tuesday of the month. Prepared to perform all Dental operations with which he may be favored. Terms within the reach of all and strictly cash except by special contract. Work to be sent by mail or otherwise, must be paid for when impressions are taken.

NO MORE BALD HEADS!
NO MORE GRAY LOCKS
Dr. LEONS'
ELECTRIC HAIR RENEWER,

Is pronounced by all who have used it the very best preparation for the hair. It is a positive cure for Baldness, eradicates Dandruff and Humors, stops the Hair from falling out, and speedily restores Gray Locks to their original hue and luxuriance.

It operates on the secretions and fills the glands with new life and coloring matter. Thin, dead, faded or gray hair will always be brought back by a few applications, to its youthful abundance, vitality and color.

It makes the hair soft, glossy, fragrant, pleasant to the touch and easy to arrange. Dry, wiry and intractable locks become moist, pliant and disposed to remain in any desired position. As a Hair Dressing it has no equal. The sales are enormous and it is a universal favorite with old and young of both sexes.

Sold by Druggists throughout the United States. Address all orders to

GIRARD
Life Insurance Company,
OF
PHILADELPHIA.
CAPITAL & ASSETS, JAN. 1, 1867,
$2,455,355 56.

Mutual Insurance Combined with the Security of a Capital.

The Girard Life Insurance Company was chartered in 1826, and is therefore one of the oldest, as well as most substantial companies in the United States. It effects insurance for the whole of Life; upon the nonforfeitable or ten year plan, or for any term of years. It also issues Endowment Policies.

Premiums may be paid Yearly, Semi-annually or Quarterly.

All the insured for whole of life, (including those on the ten year plan,) participate in the profits of the company.

Those insuring in the Girard may always rest assured that their best interests will be protected. All whole of Life Policies of several years standing, are purchasable by the company, or may be commuted into a policy for a smaller amount, without any thing more to pay—therefore the insured need not fear a loss in case they are not able, after several years payments, to keep up their policies.

Bonusses or additions to policies are made every five years, without any increase in the premium.

Its profits are absolute. Its premiums moderate. Its privileges liberal. It has paid many losses, and has never contested a claim.
